

ELISABETH KÜBLER-ROSS, MD (psychiatrist and author of On Death and Dying): "Features among other intriguing topics...Near Death and Out of Body Experiences of an extraordinary character, inspiring the reader with not only the beauty of these states, but the conviction that the time between incarnations is one of valuable instruction. Death will never be feared again."

BOOKLIST (American Library Association): "Although books on reincarnation continue to flood the market, this volume is unique in its ability to pull together all aspects of the theory. Moreover, the text is written so lucidly and with such flavor that even the most die-hard skeptic will come away with much to think about."

DR. ALAN SEABURG (Harvard Divinity School): "The book is a surprise and a joy."

MOREY BERNSTEIN (author of The Search for Bridey Murphy): "The book is a masterpiece."

DR. DAVID WELTHA (Professor of Sociology, Iowa State University of Science and Technology): "Very inspiring. It has a sterling formula for living within its pages. Do not be surprised by the speed with which this book becomes a textbook."

PROFESSOR GEDDES MacGREGOR (Emeritus Distinguished Professor of Philosophy, Anglican priest, Special Preacher at Westminster Abbey): "Direct and appealing in a way the ordinary person can understand. Will be of immense help to many people."

BRIAN L. WEISS, MD (Chairman of Psychiatry, Mt. Sinai Medical Center, Miami, author of Many Lives, Many Masters and Through Time into Healing): "This is the single best source book on reincarnation research and history. I have referred many over the years to this book and am very grateful now that this edition is being published."
